

Savan Group Wins Contract to Support DOJ Records Information Management Program

ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA, September 22, 2011 – Savan Group has been awarded a new task order under their IDIQ contract at the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) to provide a records management support services. Through this task order, Savan Group will provide subject matter expertise and records management support to the Office of Records Management Policy's (ORMP) Records Information Management Program (RIM). Savan Group consultants will conduct comprehensive assessments of records to ensure accuracy and subsequently, provide recommendations to effectively streamline the processing of records, as well as to assist with general records management tasks.

Paul DeYoung, an Associate at Savan Group and Project Manager for the effort, noted that, "Savan Group's ability to bring qualified expertise and tested and documented tools to support ORMP effectively and cost-effectively was one of the major reasons we were selected. These tools will guarantee that the proper approach is consistently used to evaluate, document, and report on the processing of Department records."
