SAVAN GROUP PRESIDENT VEERAL MAJMUDAR IS A GUEST PANELIST FOR GEORGETOWN MBA CONSULTING DAY

MR. MAJMUDAR SPEAKS TO STUDENTS ABOUT BENEFITS AND CHALLENGES ASSOCIATED WITH BOUTIQUE CONSULTING FIRMS.

Washington, DC, October 9th, 2009 – Savan Group LLC President and Founder, Veeral Majmudar, spoke to a group of MBA students at Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business as a guest panelist for the business school's annual Consulting Day hosted by the MSB Consulting Club. Mr. Majmudar was part of a panel focused on boutique consulting firms. He was joined by representatives of other leading boutique consulting firms including Mercer, Censeo Consulting, MarketBridge, and Heflin Consulting.

The panelist presented their thoughts and ideas regarding boutique consulting industry and the challenges and benefits associated with working for some of smaller firms in the industry. The panel also answered questions from the students ranging from the reasons for entering the consulting industry to the choices made regarding work/life balance.

"I always enjoy meeting with those who are considering a career in consulting or just interested in changing their focus within the industry. Moreover, I have always walked away from these networking events impressed with the talent available for firms like ours." said Veeral Majmudar, Savan Group's President.
