SAVAN GROUP AWARDED HUD MINIMUM PROPERTY STANDARDS SUPPORT CONTRACT

SAVAN GROUP TO DELIVER TECHNICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES TO SUPPORT HUD'S OFFICE OF MANUFACTURED HOUSING PROGRAMS

Arlington, Virginia, October 4, 2010 – Savan Group LLC, a leading public–sector program management, strategy and IT consulting firm, announced today that it has been awarded a five year, FFP and CPFF prime contract by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (www.hud.gov) to provide support services to the Office of Manufactured Housing Programs (OMH) in administering the Minimum Property Standards (MPS) program on behalf of the Federal Housing Administration (FHA).

Under the contract, Savan Group will provide program management assistance and technical services including review of codes, standards, construction, designs, and materials, in addition to providing assistance with outreach and information exchanges, and conducting special investigations and analysis support services to support the MPS. The Savan Group has partnered with the Institute for Building Technology and Safety (IBTS), a leading professional and technical service provider in the built environment, to provide the best qualified consultants to assist HUD in this long standing program.

“This is an exciting opportunity for the Savan Group to support a program which has played an important role in FHA’s financial backing of construction projects for over 70 years,” said Paul DeYoung, an Associate at the Savan Group. “The Savan Group understands the challenges and issues of the MPS Program, and this award reflects our focus on sustaining and enhancing our clients’ mission-critical operations.”
