

SAVAN GROUP SELECTED AS SUBCONTRACTOR FOR HUD CONTRACT

Savan Group to deliver project management consulting services to support Institute for Building Technology & Safety under HUD contract

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, March 11, 2011 - Savan Group LLC, a leading public-sector strategy, transformation, and business improvement consulting firm, announced today that it has been awarded a subcontract by Institute for Building Technology & Safety (IBTS) (www.ibts.org) to provide engineering consulting services to U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Program.

Under the subcontract, active through July 26, 2011, Savan Group will provide project engineering consulting services to support ITBS's HUD Manufactured Home Monitoring and Inspection Contract.

"This subcontract presents Savan Group an opportunity to apply our Engineering expertise and institutional knowledge of the federal sector to help IBTS provide the best possible solutions and recommendations to the client. Ultimately, our goal is to help the client improve their safety standards program," said Veeral Majmudar, Savan Group's president. "We believe that this partnership will allow HUD to leverage both firms' core competencies, providing design review engineer support expertise to develop safety standards for manufactured housing.
