

SAVAN GROUP WINS DOJ IT OPERATIONS AND MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

SAVAN GROUP TO DELIVER JUSTICE RECORDS CONTROL SCHEDULE TOOL SUPPORT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Arlington, Virginia, June 8, 2011 – Savan Group LLC, a leading public–sector strategy, transformation, and business improvement consulting firm, announced today that it has been awarded a contract by the Department of Justice (DOJ) to provide operations and maintenance support for the DOJ Records Control Schedule (RCS) Tool.

Under the contract, active through May 2012, Savan Group will provide information technology (IT) operations and maintenance (O&M) services to support DOJ's newly developed RCS Tool. "This contract will allow us to provide dedicated support to ensure the success of the RCS Tool," said Paul DeYoung, Savan Group's Project Manager at DOJ. "Having built the Tool, and supported DOJ in a number of capacities for several years, we have unrivaled knowledge with which to see DOJ achieve its goals with this exciting application. All DOJ components will enjoy the ease of use, and improved compliance, the RCS Tool delivers."

This year, Savan Group has continued to expand its footprint in the federal government with additional contracts at DOJ, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. According to Savan Group President Veeral Majmudar strong client relationships are central to Savan Group's success: "Savan Group's foundation of value-based consulting, and our focus on customer's goals, allows us to build long-term relationships and support client needs from beginning to end. Our consultants know their clients, the environment, and the opportunities – and they tailor their approach to the client's needs."
